

Packages and Prices for Fashion and Modelling Photography

For portraits with a more artistic style, these packages are best suited to those looking to get more creative in front of the camera. Why not go for that authentic model experience and have a professional hair and make-up artist bring out the best in your natural features? These packages make excellent gifts for that special style-conscious person in your life, or a great treat for yourself! If you are looking to get started in the modelling industry, having a portfolio with fantastic images will give you a flying start.
